1.2 FLAWLESS!

Learning from your mistakes

Your child has taken part in an OFF-TRAIL workshop on perseverance. They learned that they can use obstacles and mistakes to improve themselves.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mistakes are positive and help us learn. Everyone makes mistakes. The important thing is to see mistakes as learning opportunities, not as failures. Allow your child to make mistakes and help them find solutions.

NOW IT'S UP TO YOU!

You can take advantage of moments of discussion with your child to tell them about a situation in which you encountered challenges or obstacles that finally helped you become better. You're a role model for your child, so they'll understand that everyone makes mistakes. Remind them that practice makes perfect.
